We are unable to continue processing your 2018-2019 FAFSA application for financial aid because it contains incomplete or conflicting information. We need clarification about whom your responsible parent is and that parent's current marital status.

Federal guidelines for the determination of your responsible parent are as follows: Your responsible parent is the parent with whom you lived the most with during the 12 months before your FAFSA application was signed. If you did not live with either parent, or you lived with each parent an equal number of days (including zero days), your responsible parent is the parent who provided you the most support in the most recent 12-month period. Support means gift, loans, housing, food, clothing, car, money, medical and dental care, payment of college costs, etc.
